Public Works Week Celebration

Above, Below, and All Around You

You are invited to the Downtown Lakeland First Friday event to celebrate National Public Works Week (NPWW). The event will be held in Munn Park on Friday, May 7th, 2010 from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

- Public Works will showcase information about each division
- Register for prize drawings from the various divisions
- Learn about our education programs and see a variety of equipment in use
- Participate in children activities, give-a-ways and games
- Check out area shops and restaurants which will remain open late
- Enjoy music and entertainment that will be featured around the park

The Main Street parking garage offers free parking beginning at 5:00 pm the evening of the event. Additional free parking is also available in the Bay Street lot, Oak Street Park & Ride and the old fire station lot located at 400 East Main Street.
